Established in 1925, the Coral Gables Garden Club raises funds to complete community projects and programs. Current projects include beautification efforts of Coral Gables, Project Canopy, dedicated to increasing the tree canopy in our public schools and green spaces; restoration of native habitat at Camp Mahachie, a Mangrove restoration project; constructing the Lamar Louise Curry Park in partnership with the City of Coral Gables; upgrading the Merrick House heritage gardens, and scholarships to college and graduate level students studying in the fields of the natural sciences. Additional current and past projects are listed on the website.
